Fun Story

How YoYo Chose Her Name

When YoYo first came home, her humans prepared a shortlist of adorable names. But as they tried calling them out one by one, she stayed perfectly still... until she heard "YoYo."

With a little head tilt, a butt wiggle, and a gleam in her eye, she trotted over. The decision was clear: she picked her own name—because of course she did. She's always known exactly who she is.

About me

I'm a social butterfly with four paws, known for my contagious joy, professional-level posing skills, and my signature 'butt wiggle' greeting. Whether I'm walking down the street or starring in a photo shoot, I charm every human and dog I meet.
